MR. P. T. GLASS,

The Ripley News assures its readers that Mr. P. T. Glass will receive the united and warm support of the Democratic party in the Ninth Congressional District, which means victory by the substantial majority of 5000 votes. Mr. Glass "has been a citizen of Lauderdale county," says the News, "since 1847, and has at all times possessed and exhibited attributes and among men. The political record of no one is more unsullied. It is absolutely banged, and still wearing the dress in which she eloped, welcomed the visitor, without spot or blemish. He has been true not only to his party and its principles, but to his county, his State and to his section. True at home, true in the halls of the Legislature, and true to his post when war was flagrant among us. No one has done more to develop and sustain the industrial interests of his county, and to give wholesome and salutary laws to the great body of the people of the State. No one knows better, nor understands more fully the wants and needs of the people, and none could bring to bear more energy, tact and information in securing salutary legislation. Without disparagement, we believe, no one in the district could have greater influence at Washington than Col. Glass."

which she cloped, welcomed the visitor, and said:

"You are the very first reporter that we have seen, and I hope that you will appreciate the fact."

The reporter assured Mrs. Schelling that he did appreciate the honor, and succeeded in convincing her that she would be correctly reported in everything that she or her husband said.

The room which the famous couple occupy is the front parlor. It is neatly and tastefully furnished, and is, in short, a very comfortable, cheerful apartment. "I wish," said Mr. Schilling—for that is the way in which he spells his name," "that you would say that all the interviews which are alleged to have been had with us are false. THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

On the 9th of October the County Democratic Convention will be held for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature. It is time the party was casting about with the view of selecting a strong ticket. The outlook in Shelby is excellent for a substantial Democratic victory. Ellett and folks. You know that you would not like to have secured for him wealth and an enviable reputation for punctilious integrity. Ellett and Neely are the class of men the people need in the State Legislature. They are acquainted with the needs of the city and county, and uninfluenced by party bias, they would consult only the public good. We can never have good government unless good men are forced into the public service. Incompetent legislators, and uninfluenced by party bias, completely legislation and dishonest officials can be traced to the failure of good men to interest themselves in public affairs. One of the seven wise men of Greece said: "Aware how much the business of all is liable to be the business of all is liable to be the business of none, the law-givers' sovereign power to the people would not leave it to their choice to neglect their duties.

Upon this principle rests that singular ation he walked away to the further end of the warehouse. For as it is notociously the honester men who are most disposed to be quiet on such occasions, disposed to be quiet on such occasions, nothing seems so likely to secure the constitution as compelling all men to interfere." These are grave ideas seriously expressed and apply to the present age as appropriately as they did to the Grecian age. Cicero, in his letter to Atticus, debated with himself those political theses, as he terms them, "whether it be the part of a good citizen to be neutral in his country's peril?" "whether tral in his country's peril?" "whether it is not particularly character as wife and mother is without reporach. GENEVA, September 26.—A meeting of the Salvation Army at Nyon, on the northwestern shore of Lake Geneva, was attacked by a rabble to-day. Windows of the building in which the Salvationists were assembled were smashed, doors forced and furniture destroyed.

ERRING ELLA.

The Mandsome Young Female Bargiar of New York Sentenced to the Peuttentiary.

of the civil war Mr. Fulton's father, C. C. Fulton, was proprietor of the Baltimore American, a Republican newspaper. About three years ago he died. Scarcely had he been buried, and, while his life and political conduct were still being discussed alike by friend and enemy, when Mr. Tayleure wrote, or caused to be written, an article for the Boston Herald, declaring that the late Mr. Fulton was a Union man at heart, but had espoused the Southern cause at one time from one of the most selfish of motives. He was animated, Mr. Tayof motives. He was animated, Mr. Tay-leure declared, merely by a desire to save his property, which, he feared, would be in danger from the Southerners f his real sentiments were known. The if his real sentiments were known. The first to resent this assertion was his son, A. K. Fulton. He replied through the Boston Herald, characterizing Mr. Tayleure's article as absolutely unfounded and severely criticising the disposition shown to malign the dead. This reply in its turn provoked a rejoinder from the latter, and the wordy duel was carried on with great spirit for many months. Meanwhile, as has been said, the two men did not meet. They had not known each other and been on friendly terms before the quarrel began. Years afterward when the old wrangle had been forgotten by almost everyone except the fell in love with her and for the past two weeks has been persecuting the judge, district attorney and other officials with petitions to permit him to marry her and take her with him to Connecticut. Ella cured by a king's touch. The world is wiser now, and knows that gotten by almost everyone except the principals, Mr. Tayleure at Long Branch read in a New York paper that Mr. Fulton was stopping at the Morton House. Immediately he came to the city and sought "the Rialto." Few of the talented gentlemen who were supporting the entrance to the Union Square Theter retired him as he peered about among SCROFULA can only be cured by a thorough purifica-tion of the blood. If this is neglected, the disease perpetuates its taint through generation after generation. Among its curiler symptomatic developments are Eczema, Cutaneous Eruptions, Tu-mors, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas, Purulent Ulcers, Nervous and Phy-sical Collapse, etc. If allowed to con-tinue, Rheumatism, Scrofulous Ca-tarrh, Kidney and Liver Diseases, Tubercular Consumption, and vari-ous other dangerous or fatal maladies, are produced by it.

Ayer's Sarsaparılla

Is the only powerful and always reliable blood-purifying medicine. It is so effectual an alterative that it eradicates from the system Hereditary Scrofula, and the kindred poisons of contagious diseases and mercury. At the same time it enriches and vitalizes the blood, restoring healthful action to the vital organs and rejuvenating the entire system. This great nize a strong situation, and gathered eloser to the two men. Then ensued a brief conversation in short sentences that Regenerative Medicine Is composed of the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla, with Yellow Dock, Stillingia, the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and other ingredients of great potency, carefully and scientifically compounded. Its formula is generally known to the medical profession, and the best physicians constantly prescribe AYER'S SARSAPARILLA as an Absolute Cure

For all diseases caused by the vitiation of the blood. It is concentrated to the highest practicable degree, far beyond any other preparation for which like effects are claimed, and is therefore the cheapest as well as the best blood purifying medicine, in the world. WINTERSMITH'S Chill Cure

Cures every form of Fever and Ague, and Malaria. The chill when broken does not return. and other remedies:

Is because in these DISEASES there is always derangement of the liver and often of the digestive organs. The remedies usually given have reference only to breaking the chill without regard to the condition the system may be left in; whereas the mere breaking of the chill is but a small part of what is required. The various organs of the body, more especially the liver and stomach runst be brought into a healthy condition, otherwise the return of the chills will be the probable result. WINTERSMITH'S TONIC acts gently and agreeably upon the liver and bowels effectually removing the cause of the disease.
